

Family Heritage Celebration

Sponsored by the Joseph Taylor Sr. Family Association
And Local Family Friends

A Genealogy Road Show

September 5-6, 2014

Friday September 5th at Richardsville Community Center

171 Center St. Richardsville, KY

10:00 AM Starting Registration – Jane Smith and friends

Jane and team will register guests and give you names tags and handouts – agenda, tour handouts and genealogy kits etc.

Order Lunch for Sat. ($5.00 Optional)

Join the Taylor Family Association for $15.00 which includes donation for event (optional)

Tag any photo or artifacts guest have brought to show and share.

Donation jug (Optional $5.00 per family for administrative costs.)

As required Welcome from Team

Maybe given casually several times as people arrive

1 & 3 PM Tours of Cemeteries

Hayride tours of the Taylor and Hudnall cemeteries etc. provided by the Hudnall's

Starting around 1:00 PM and 3:00 PM as necessary

Tours will start and return to Richardsville Community Center

Auto Tour - Self guided tour of Richardsville area with map provided by the TFA.

Family gathering -Opportunity to meet family and friends and share family history

6:30 Dinner and Social

BBQ Dinner - Pulled Pork meat with sauces provided by the Young's and Hudnall's

Social - "I remember- Senior Family members."

Casual reflections on times past by senior member of the families.

You are welcome to ask questions and respond to questions.

Saturday, September 6th at LDS Church in Bowling Green

Address: 1310 Cave Mill Rd

Bowling Green, KY

8: AM Continuing Registration – See above

9: AM Welcome - Gordon and Team

Brief welcome, administration and acknowledgment of team

Brief Greeting of families – Purpose of Family Heritage Celebration

Brief reports from each family line present.

10:00 Gathering and Sharing Stories – Tom Cormier , Co owner of Legacy Stories.

Presentation & demo by Tom Cormier of Legacy Stories on gathering and sharing stories using Pict-Orals and storing them in a cloud to share with family and friends.

Break

11:00 AM Find my link - Activity for families to find their link to the past

Help from Taylor Family History personal

They may also copy pedigree information into their kit. Meet cousins and share information

12:00 PM Lunch ($5.00) or on your own

Subway will caterer sandwiches – plus chips and water bottle

a. Cousin time - visit

Workshop/Seminars (circle one choice per hour.)

1:00 PM

- a. Story Recording – Tom & Gordon and team
“Show and Tell” recording of up to three minute stories about pictures, artifacts or personal events. Bring photos, artifacts with you. Shared recordings with family and friends.
- b. Find my Link on FamilySearch - Steve & Karl/wives and friends
FamilySearch has one of the world’s largest genealogy database. Get a free account and see what information is available with help of Taylor Family History Consultants. (You may also want to consider seminar on FamilySearch at 3: PM as well)
- c. What’s my line “Live Presentation” and printing of descendant lines – Ron Taylor, David
Ron Taylor will present a brief presentation on the TFA database and then offer free descendancy information to guests. If you are related and information is found it will be printed and sent to you via email or post.

2:00 PM

- a. Story Recording – Tom and team, Continued see a. above
- b. Seminar - Family History Fun for families and family gathering – Susan Taylor and team
Susan will share ideas to help keep family stories and history live in families of all ages.
A very popular presenter with great material and suggestion for families and groups
- c. Find my Link on FamilySearch –Steve & Karl/wives and friends, See b. above
- d. What’s my Line – Ron and David, See C. above
- e. Seminar - Writing Histories and Biographical Sketches - Gordon
Show a way to quickly write a biographical sketch of a person’s life and link it - Handout

3:00 PM

- a. Seminar - Family History Fun for families & Family gathering (repeat) – Susan Taylor
Family History ideas including how to use mobiles.
- b. Seminar - Using Mobiles to collect family history - Tom & Gordon
Tom will show how to use mobile devices to gather family stories with a few tricks and resources.
- c. Seminar - Using FamilySearch to connect to my family – Karl Steve Doug and wives and friends
For people who want to know more about how to use FamilySearch.

4: 00 PM

Farewell from team

Clean up

5:30 - 9 PM Richardsville Community Center

Hayride tour of the Taylor and Hudnall cemeteries etc. provided by the Hudnall’s

More BBQ

Social Gathering and reflecting

Opportunity to gather one last time. Visit and ask questions

Thank you for coming.

We would appreciate your comments, thoughts and what we can do to help keep the history of these great American families alive for your family. Email Jerry Hudnall at jhudnall@gmail.com Terry Young twlhyoung@insightbb.com or Gordon Taylor at gmtmt@msn.com or call 303 683 9244. Questions are also good.

Notes